Personal Pronouns (Subject, Object)

Practice 1.1

Instructions. Based on this lesson, answer the questions in complete sentences using the correct subject or object pronouns. The end of the complete answer is provided for context.

Example: Do the children eat vegetables?
Answer: Yes, they eat them very often.

When you are done, see "Answer Key" to check your answers.

1. Does Susan speak French?

    Yes, _____ very well.

2. Where is Texas?

    _____ in the South.

3. Are these books expensive?

    No, _____ not very expensive.

4. Do you see your parents very often?

    Yes, _____ every week.

5. Why are Jack and Michael learning French?_____

    because they are moving to France next year.

6. When are the children going to buy ice cream?

    _____ right now.

7. Do you eat vegetables?

    Yes, _____ every day.

8. When are you using these books?

    _____ next week.

9. When are you going to talk to Mrs. Smith?

    _____ tomorrow.

10. When are we leaving?

    _____ at 7 in the morning.

Answer Key

1. Yes, she speaks it very well.

2. It is in the South.

3. No, they are not very expensive.

4. Yes, I see them every week.
   Yes, we see them every week.

5. They are learning it because they are moving to France next year.

6. They are going to buy it right now.

7. Yes, I eat them every day.
   Yes, I eat them every day.

8. I am using them next week.
   We are using them next week.

9. I am going to talk to her tomorrow.
   We are going to talk to her tomorrow.

10. We are leaving at 7 in the morning.
    You are leaving at 7 in the morning.